STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Under article 297 of the Constitution, all lands, minerals and other things of value underlying the ocean within the territorial waters or the continental shelf of India vest in the Union to be held for the purposes of the Union. India has sovereign rights over the resources of the exclusive economic zone and is entitled to exercise jurisdiction in respect of certain other matters. It is proposed to amend article 297 of the Constitution so as to provide that all lands, minerals and other things of value underlying the ocean within the exclusive economic zone of India and all other resources of the exclusive economic zone of India shall also vest in the Union and be held for the purposes of the Union. At present, the limits of territorial waters and the continental shelf are determined by Proclamation issued by the President. It is proposed that the limits of the territorial waters, the continental shelf, the exclusive economic zone and the maritime zones of India shall be as specified from time to time by or under law made by Parliament.

2. Recourse was had in the past to the Ninth Schedule whenever it was found that progressive legislation conceived in the interest of the public was imperilled by litigation. Certain State legislations relating to land reforms and ceiling on agricultural land holdings have already been included in the Ninth Schedule. Certain amendments made to these legislations also require protection of the provisions of article 31B inasmuch as in many cases such enactments have been challenged in courts and courts have granted interim reliefs which has hampered the implementation of the national land reform policy.

3. Besides these Acts relating to land reforms certain State enactments relating to private forests require protection of article 31B as these enactments are progressive and beneficial pieces of legislation intended to end the monopoly of vested interests and forest contractors. Some of such legislations have been challenged in courts and as the courts have granted interim reliefs staying the operation of these enactments, the State Governments have not been able to implement these legislations.

4. Certain Central laws like the Smugglers and Foreign Exchange Manipulators (Forfeiture of Property) Act, 1976, the Urban Land (Ceiling and Regulation) Act, 1976, the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 and certain provisions of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939 require protection of article 31B. If these legislations are allowed to be challenged in courts of law thereby delaying the implementation of these laws, the very purpose of enacting these laws would be frustrated and the national economy may be severely affected. These and other important and special enactments which it is considered necessary should have the constitutional protection are proposed to be included in the Ninth Schedule.

5. The Bill seeks to give effect to the above objects.

CHAPTER II

In the Constitution (Andaman and Nicobar Islands) Scheduled Tribes Order, 1959,—

(a) in paragraph 2, for the words “resident in the localities specified in relation to them in that Schedule”, the words “resident in that Union territory” shall be substituted;

(b) for the Schedule, substitute—

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Under the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes Orders some communities have been specified as Scheduled Castes or as Scheduled Tribes only in certain areas of the State concerned and not in respect of the whole State. This has been causing difficulties to members of these communities in the areas where they have not been so specified. The present Bill generally seeks to remove these area restrictions. However, in cases where continuance of such restrictions were specifically recommended by the Joint Committee on the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes Orders (Amendment) Bill, 1967, no change is being effected. The Committee had also recommended exclusion of certain communities from the lists of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. These exclusions are not being made at present and such communities are being retained in the lists with the present area restrictions. Such of the communities in respect of which the Joint Committee had recommended exclusion on the ground that they were not found in a State are, however, being excluded if there were no returns in respect of these communities in the censuses of 1961 and 1971.

2. The proposed amendments in the lists of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes may lead to an increase in the population of these Castes and Tribes, and consequently, in the number of reserved seats in the Lok Sabha and certain State Legislative Assemblies. Provisions have therefore been made in the Bill to empower the census authority to re-estimate the population of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes, and the Election Commission to re-allocate the reserved constituencies.

K. BRAHMANANDA REDDI.

NEW DELHI;

The 12th May, 1976.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 5 of the Bill empowers the census authority to re-estimate the population of the Scheduled Castes, or as the case may be, of the Scheduled Tribes in each State, while clause 6 of the Bill makes a provision for the re-adjustment of reserved constituencies by the Election Commission. The re-estimation of population and the re-adjustment of reserved constituencies will entail expenditure out of the Consolidated Fund of India. It is estimated that the expenditure involved will be of the order of Rs. 5 lakhs (non-recurring) during the year 1976-77. There will be no recurring expenditure.

S. L. SHAKDHER,
Secretary-General.
